DESY Photon Science Users' Meeting 2025: 20 – 24 January 2025

Young Scientist Award and UOEC PhD Poster prizes

European XFEL is inviting nominations for this award, recognising outstanding contributions to research at European XFEL by researchers in the early stages of their career.

Nominations will be selected by the User Organization Executive Committee (UOEC). The award includes an invited talk at the European XFEL Users' Meeting and a monetary prize. Nominations striving to showcase the work of female researchers and nominees with disabilities are encouraged.

New European XFEL UOEC PhD Poster prizes will be awarded as well.
